

L'ESPERANCE Children's Village San Mateo Bolivia

The Children's Village San Mateo was founded in 1998 and is situated at the foot of the Andes where the Bolivian rainforest begins on the banks of Rio San Mateo, 150 km east of Cochabamba. We care for 55 social orphans in 6 family units. On the 35 ha land there is forest. Also vegetables and fruit are cultivated.

There are also a bakery and a carpentry for income generation and as training centers for the craftsmanship of the children. The carpentry mainly produces chairs and tables for public schools.

In our agriculture we cultivate yuca (cassava) and bananas. Unfortunately, due to lots of rain Río San Mateo ripped off parts of our banana plantation. In order to protect our children's village and our drinking well better, two gabions were built. A new staff house is under construction and a new office building is planned. For this we need additional donations.

Since 2016 ADRA Germany sends two volunteers for one year to San Mateo. They render a helpful service in the various fields of labor.

Our manager in Bolivia is Juan Nuñez.
